Hawaiian Scenes and Subjects

In the matter of Colored Photos we yield the palm to none.

A collection of a dozen or more of these neatly mounted and done up in a native made Lauhala folder, could not be excelled as a gift.

Should we chance not to have some desirable view we would engage to make it and be thankful for the suggestion. 50c. per Doz.

Dee, the proprietor, has attained success in his line, by specially and personally supervising everything connected with his establishment. He now introduces to eles, at prices that will astonish you. his patrons "Olympia Beer." This brew is from the "Capital Brewing Co." of Olympia, the capital of the State of Washington, and was received by the III III NIIN TIN "Garonne." Mr. Schmitt, the leading spirit of this corporation, is a practical Chemist and Brewer, and after years of search and investigation located his plant at Olympia, on account of the peculiar virtues of the water of the Tum Falls, a stream that is noted for its distinctive qualities of clearness, coldness and lack of mineral and decaying vegetable impurities. Pure beer can only be made with pure water, and Gurney Cleanable Refrigerators Tum water is traditional in Washington with the Indians and original white settlers. The "Olymphia Draught" is under the special control and agency of Mr. Dee and he invites his patrons and friends to a personal test and is Germ-proof Filters, willing to abide by their judgment on the merits of his latest venture.

Commendation for Mr. and Mrs. Williams.

Letters From Chas, T. Wilder and Rev. Herbert H. Gowen-Shakespeare at the Y. M. C A.

The Australia, on her return trip down, will bring Mr. and Mrs. Hannibal A. Williams, the noted Snakespearean recitalists. During their brief stay here they will give four evenings with Shakespeare at the Y. M. C. A. They will then continue on their way to Australia.

This will afford the Honolulu lovers of art an unusual opportunity of listening to the two gifted interpreters of Shakespeare.

The following letter from Consul-General Charles T. Wilder explains itand every housekeeper should take

Two more difficult plays could hardly W-W-W-W-W-W-W-M have been chosen than "The Tempest" and "The Winter's Tale," and yet we found a power of interpretation and differentitation of chaarcter I, for one, never expected to see. We had given us by one voice all the wonderful range from Caliban to Prospero, from Stephano to Ariel, and again we had the interval between Antolycus to Hermione bridged with marvelous success, The introductions to the plays and the have at last found the article pose. CURIOSITY.

Voltaire, in one of his writings, states, as his opinion: It is curiosity our effort after they have seen alone that induces people to hasten to the shore to see a vessel overwhelmned S in a tempest and remarks that he had experienced the feelings at such an then rust through, after it has E event, as those of only curiosity and pity. He claims that curiosity is returned to man, monkeys and little dogs. Take a little dog with you in a selelosed carriage, he will be constantly putting up his paws against the door in Honolulu some time but the to see what is passing. No Program Yet.

The executive committee of the Jockey Club has not as yet decided in regard to the programme for the races. Crockery, Hardware, & No meeting has been held. The committee is waiting to learn which day will be set apart by the Government for a holiday. The question as to whether the free-for-all will be three out of five or two out of three will be decided at the meeting. The prevailing opinion seems to be that it will be

OUR REPRESENTATIVES.

We have Shoes for those too young to walk, for those too old to run; for those who dance with merry feet, or through weary years still shuffle on.

Shoes as light as the heart of youth, as strong as manly courage, as beautiful as woman's grace and firm as truth most chaste.

Shoes for dry and wet, for cold and storm, for I week day and Sunday, and always to be depended on.

All our Shoes are like good ministers--they wear > themselves out in the service of mankind.
